

Young Life Field Staff Position Uralla – 1-2 days a week

A position has become available in Uralla for Young Life Australia, engaging with young people in the community in line with our organisation's ministry model. The worker will work closely with the St John's Anglican Parish in Uralla. The position is for 1 to 2 days a week.

Young Life Australia is a non-denominational Christian charity that mentors and offers stable and caring role models to teenagers, operating in fifteen urban and rural communities around Australia. Our focus is to build confidence, values and resilience in Australia's young people through significant relationships with adults who model the love of Jesus Christ.

Young Life has a dynamic and unique ministry model based on a relational approach to young people both inside and outside the local church. Young Life is seeking a spiritually mature person with a heart for out-reach and discipleship to carry on the already established work with youth in Uralla. The role would be supervised by the Young Life New England Regional Manager, and supported by the local Young Life Uralla Area Committee.

To be successful in the role you will need to be a servant leader of high character, with a desire to build caring relationships with young people and share your faith. You must be confident in working with teenagers and a team of adult leaders, have a strong Christian faith and a mature outlook and agree with the aims and working principles of Young Life.

Depending on the experience of the applicant the role maybe undertaken as a Field Staff or Area Coordinator position. Training in Young Life Australia's Leadership Foundations will be provided.

Applications close on Monday 8th January 2018 at 5pm and interviews will be conducted on 11th January 2018. Only short listed candidates will be contacted. Desired start date is 29th January 2018.
