

Young Life Australia Camp Registration Terms and Conditions: Summer Staff, Work Crew, Cabin Leaders, Staff

Consent to medical attention: I confirm my consent to the activities I/my child will engage in while on a Young Life Australia camp and understand these activities carry the normal risks associated with them. I acknowledge the staff and volunteer agents of Young Life Australia will take all possible care but cannot be held responsible for unforeseen accidents or illness arising. I hereby consent to all medical, hospital, rescue procedures being employed in the best interests of myself/my child and my next of kin/I shall be notified as soon as possible should the continuance of such procedures be necessary.

Disclaimer: In the unforeseen event of personal injury or illness sustained while on a Young Life Australia camp, or the loss of personal property except where such property was held in the custody of Young Life Australia staff or volunteer agents when lost while on a Young Life Australia camp, I hereby release, and exempt, and indemnify the organisers, sponsors, and all other persons involved in the organisation of the Young Life Australia camp, from all action, proceedings, demands, costs, expense, and claims whatsoever made or taken by any person arising out of my/my child's participation in such camp.

Discipline: If in the event my/your child's behaviour is deemed by the organisers to be inappropriate or compromises the safety and or health of other participants on the camp, then Young Life Australia reserves the right to send you/your child home, at the earliest possible time, by the most effective mode of transport in conjunction with your co-operation. This will be at your expense.

Medical Information: Your/your child's medical information is securely stored online via the CareMonkey system. It is kept confidential and only used in the best interest of you/your child's welfare.

Deposit: A non-refundable deposit of $75.00 is required to hold your place on Young Life Australia's camp program.

Payment Policy: Full camp payment is required by December 15. Failure to make full payment before camp commences may forfeit your/your child's place on camp.

Refund Policy: If you/your child is does not meet the selection criteria for serving on summer staff, work crew or as a cabin leader or positions are full, then a full refund of your deposit will be made as soon as possible. Preference is given to those meeting the selection criteria, meeting the necessary skills required to fill roles and availability to be at camp for the full week.

If you/your child withdraws from camp of your own accord then Young Life Australia's standard refund policy applies.

Deposit	Non-refundable
30 days or more	Full refund (less deposit)
29-15 days	75% refund of fee (less deposit)
14-8 days	50% refund of fee (less deposit)
7 days or less	No refund

Medication at camp: If you/your child requires prescription medication, they should bring enough medication for the duration of their stay. All medication should be in its original packaging and clearly labelled with your/your child's name, the dosage and frequency. You need to notify the camp organisers of all prescribed medications you/your child is taking if under 18.

Asthma and anaphylaxis: If you/your child suffers from asthma or anaphylaxis, they should have an asthma management plan or anaphylaxis action plan which has been prepared by your/their doctor. Download sample plan templates from Australasian Society of Clinical Immunology and Allergy website (link is external). If you/your child has a plan, please provide it to Young Life Australia staff prior to attending camp.

Participants with asthma need to bring their own peak flow meters to camp and carry their inhaler with them at all times. Participants at risk of anaphylaxis need to bring at least one adrenaline auto injector as Young Life Australia does not provide them.

Mobile phones and other electronic devices: Young Life Australia collects mobile phones and electronic devices from campers. We ask that the use of all phones and other devices be keep out of view of all campers at all times unless an emergency requires the use of your device.

Social Media: Young Life Australia has official social media outlets which you can repost images on your personal account. Taking personal photos of campers or under 18's or posting photos with campers in them (even in the background) is strictly forbidden. Posting photos on personal social media accounts may breach Young Life's child protection procedures and may be deemed by the organisers to be inappropriate or compromises the safety and or health of other participants on the camp, trip or excursion and require disciplinary action.
